

The 2019 APICS Board of Directors Nomination process is now open

The 2019 APICS Board of Directors Nomination process is now open. Take this opportunity to lead APICS in its mission to help our members and their organizations successfully compete and build a stronger global economy.

By serving on the 2019 APICS Board of Directors, you will share your experience and knowledge to advance the association and the supply chain profession. Your work will further the recognition and excellence of your profession and enable companies to successfully develop their supply chains.

Board members devote their time, energy, and ideas to lead the association forward and in turn, lead the supply chain community to greater success. If you possess a breadth of experience and vision and have an interest in the career advancement and education of supply chain professionals, or if you would like to recommend someone who can provide these leadership skills, please review the documents listed below and submit your nomination.

To apply or nominate others for a board position, please complete the application. Applications received before May 25, 2018 will be considered by the Nominating Committees.

Thank you for your continued support and we look forward to receiving your nomination or application for the 2019 APICS Board of Directors. Any questions on this process can be directed to Colleen Hays at chays@apics.org.

Open positions:
