APICS STUDENT

Connect with a brighter future.

As the foremost supply chain association, APICS is committed to raising the bar on supply chain excellence, innovation and resilience — one professional at a time. With your free APICS student membership, you'll benefit from industry-leading research, education and networking opportunities no other association can match.

Setting the standard

Our best-in-class certifications have been the industry standard for supply chain excellence for more than 40 years. APICS Certified in Production and Inventory Management (CPIM), APICS Certified Supply Chain Professional (CSCP) and APICS Certified in Logistics, Transportation and Distribution (CLTD) designations are respected by employers across the globe.
